MONEDERO| WARRANTY EXTENSION CONDITIONS FOR V.I.L. AND PASSENGER CAR CYLINDER HEADS

- In order to determine whether a defective product should be returned to our premises for a quality inspection, Monedero may request photographs and/or additional information.
- Monedero reserves the right to refuse any warranty claim, stating its reasons in writing to the customer. In such cases the product may be collected by the customer from our storage warehouse at the customer's own expense. If the customer refuses to collect the product, it will be discarded without any compensation.
- During the 3rd year of the warranty (counting from the moment of the sale), if the claim has been accepted, the total amount corresponding only to the part in question will be reimbursed, at the price invoiced to the customer at the moment the sale was made. Auto Comercial Monedero will not reimburse any additional costs, such as consequential damages, reassembly costs or any other follow-up or similar costs.
- The warranty exchange product will continue with the warranty given on the first sale until the end of the initial warranty period.
- The buyer expressly waives his own jurisdiction and agrees with Auto Comercial Monedero, S.A.U, to submit any differences that may arise from the interpretation or breach of these conditions, to the jurisdiction of the courts of Motilla del Palancar.
